

Race and Law Enforcement in the Urban Community

Presented by the Michigan Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials (MBC-LEO)

Saturday, April 8, 2017

- 9:00 am Check-in and refreshments
- 9:30 am Welcoming remarks
- Lois Allen-Richardson, Councilperson, Ypsilanti; MBC-LEO President
 - Myron Frasier, Council President, Southfield, MBC-LEO Vice President
 - Brian Craigo, Director of Leadership Programs, Lawrence Technological University
 - Michael Bouchard, Sheriff, Oakland County
- 9:45 am Race, Equity and Leadership
- Timothy Evans, Senior Associate, Executive Office, Race, Equity and Leadership (REAL), National League of Cities
- 10:30 am Law Enforcement Panel, moderated by U of D Professor Erick Barnes
- Eric Hawkins, Chief, Southfield
 - Chester Logan, Chief, Highland Park
 - Steve Cooper, Director of Public Safety, Oak Park
 - Charles Nebus, Chief, Farmington Hills
 - Jerry Clayton, Sheriff, Washtenaw County
 - Calvin Hart, Lieutenant, Michigan State Police
 - Robert Stevenson, Executive Director, Michigan Association of Police Chiefs
- 12:00 pm Q & A
- 12:15 pm Networking Lunch
- 1:00 pm Law Enforcement Roundtable Topics & Moderator
- Racial Profiling-Robert Stevenson
 - Stop and Frisk-Kalvin Harvell
 - Community Policing-Chief Chester Logan
 - Open Topic – Chief Charles Nebus
 - Mental Health-Charles Graham/Emily Kieliszewski
 - Domestic Violence-Fr. Michael Orr
 - Mass Incarceration/Deportation-Willie Haynes
- 2:00 pm Reports from the Roundtables (one representative per table-10 mins. each)
- 2:45 pm Q & A
- 3:30 pm Closing Remarks and Takeaways, Lois Allen-Richardson, President